Foreword

As you leaf through this book, lean back and let the memories draw you back into the past. Before your eyes will appear the highlights of the year gone by.

. . .bits and snatches of almost memories and half forgotten names of people at parties across a room or close at hand in classes or yelling at games at home and away long crowded rides in buses singing and yelling till voices are hoarse the jubilant victories and tearful defeats only pieces of it only snatches that we remember only minutes that were unimportant and never the important things to hold on to and the endless puddles and lakes to walk through and classes to go to problems to suffer with papers to sweat over and gym suits and straight hair and rain the smells of open lab windows and crowds pushing and hurrying to go somewhere someone's new car the fads and games and the promises never kept the rings the pins and medals and sweaters the thinking that hurts and the constant battle with grades the almost failures and the complete ones and what else was here but these things. . .

These bits and snatches of memories have combined to make this year one we will long remember. With this the yearbook staff presents the 1964 Alert.

Joe,
 This year has been a blast! just like when we were little kids. (remember)
 Be good this summer. Love ya, Linda Seymour.

FACULTY

Good Intentions -- Not Enough

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. . ."
2 Timothy 2:15

It is relatively easy to rush around with good intentions, accomplishing little because we lack know-how and technical competence.

Remember the messenger who outran all others in his desire to bring King David news of the battle against the rebellious Absalom. He arrived first but had no message. Quickly he was told to stand aside and wait for the messenger who knew something.

People with good intentions are not very useful unless they know something; unless from long study and earnest effort they have acquired skill and competence to deal with life's problems. The man or woman who knows how to cope successfully with some problem is welcome everywhere.

Mr. A. Verne Crowell, Dr. Everett Johnson, Clerk; Mr. Kenneth Monteith, President; Mr. Carroll Adams, Mrs. Gertrude S. Markley.

The Board of Trustees is a very important part of the community and of Turlock High School. They have acted on many changes in the curriculum which have improved our course of study. One of the projects this year has been the continuing of the building program. We are greatly indebted to them for their many hours of dedicated service.

In Memoriam

Why does God give us the sunshine
And at night time take it away?
Why does He give us the roses
That only bloom for a day?

Why does He give us our loved ones
And teach us to cherish them so
And then take them back into Heaven?
I guess I will never know.

Why? . . . by Nick Kenny 113

Well, can you actually believe that next year we'll be big juniors! Upper Classmen, at last. Have fun this summer, and be good. Best of luck to a real sweet guy.

Always a friend,

Judy first learned that she was going to Chile after school last Friday. "When I got home, Mom told me there was a special-delivery letter waiting for me at the post office. It was the first special-delivery letter I had ever received, but I didn't think much of it."

Judy continued, "When we got to the post office, we saw that the pamphlet was from the American People's Republic of Chile. Denise

The letter included portions written by each of the members of the family. One of the four sisters wrote, "We have a great admiration for the U. S." The letter also said "We practice religion regularly." "It seems kinda funny," Judy comments, "that they would say this but not stipulate which religion. I would imagine that I don't know exactly what I'll do when I get back, either. But that is a long ways away.

The Japanese team is presenting 18 wrestling matches while on a goodwill tour of California. This team consists of eight national champion wrestlers who were graduated from high school last year. The admission charge is $1.00

Beginning with the overture by the band, and ending with "Silent Night" by the band and combined choirs, the program will encompass both the religious and modern concepts of Christmas.

The religious part of the program will begin with a prologue, "Adoramus Te, Christe." Joe is Reserved for me

Dear Joe,

Heavens, whatever makes you think I can fill two pages of this book? I might as well give it a try though, so here goes: For the short time I've known you I've found you to be very fascinating or should I say unique. Unique in that to whomever I speak I hear you are one of the sweetest guys. I don't think you can have one enemy and a person like you deserves it this way. From what I have seen, you are always conscious of other people's feelings and I love you for it. Besides this, you are the funniest (not looking but humor wise) person I know. You're almost always talking (remember the drive-in; I think your brother was mad) and I enjoy trying to keep you quiet. But please don't think I want you to stop talking, I wouldn't have you any other way. I'm not halfway through the first page and have already exhausted the most interesting subject but I won't give up. I love your Triumph and will take you up on the ride some time, as long as you let me wear your helmet - only kidding. I don't think it does a thing for me. But I would like the ride. All the time I'm with you I really have fun. You just make me want to smile, I guess because I'm so happy with you. The hay-ride was a blast - I guess this was the time I decided I really liked you. I don't just mean coming home, but all through the evening. When you went to talk to your friends I really started to learn things about you. Then the date to the drive-in was when I learned more about your personality and by the way, if you don't like to be teased, I won't mess up your hair again. The only thing with this date that I didn't like was the fact that you didn't give me time to finish crunching the ice. The movie was good too, you must tell me what it was about to see if your version is the same as mine. I don't think you saw that much though. I did - on Friday night. It's hard writing here but I'm halfway through already. I'm so happy you came over on Sunday. I'm afraid you kind of monopolized my time though. It was fun swimming even though you did dunk me. I think we were about even by the time we finished. I shouldn't tell you this, but you looked real good in a swimsuit (Now I'm blushing). Just think how much we could mean to each other had we met at the beginning of the year. Now summer is almost here and I guess I won't get to see you every day but hope to as much as possible. I'm just about out of things to say. Today I was taking my French final and kept looking at your ring so to stop it from distracting me (I wouldn't have finished the test) I took it off but then it felt so odd without it that I had to put it back on. So now if I flunk the final it'll be all your fault (plus the fact that I didn't study). I've been reading through your yearbook for inspiration. I agree you're sweet, nice and a nut but don't know about being the handsomest guy. (Only kidding, I think you're a doll - you can ask me my definition of "doll" in private). However, the guy who said I was tough looking, now there's someone with good taste! Don't forget that I want to come with you when you work out sometime: you can run and I'll drive and laugh at you. Then, when you're fit and maybe have more muscles I'll wrestle you. It wouldn't be fair now on account of I'm so much stronger than you. I'm sitting in my bedroom but my mind is wandering around the walls (you know why). I'm also ~~taking~~ ^{for} first mistake, pretty good) listening to a Beatle album. I'm really proud of the fact that I'm going steady with you and hope you feel the same way about me - I respect you a lot and think you're a really neat guy. I still say I want to watch the Rolling Stones this Saturday but will give them up for you, you should feel privileged. In years to come you'll probably have forgotten who I even am but for now, I hope we stay together a long time. It wasn't too bad trying to fill this space once I started. There are 835 words here altogether and you owe me one kiss for each word. Okay? Well, I suppose I'd better give someone else a chance to sign so I'll take ~~up~~ up no more room. Closing with all my love - Pat (signed with an English accent)
